

Washington.

20th June 1834

My dear Sir,

I enclose a statement of the 3<sup>d</sup> Account in reference to your account in which you will see, that to draw, what is due to you it will be necessary that you should furnish a statement of your account, was confirmed by your affidavit, on which the account will be settled and the money remitted to you, that may be due.

We are now exceedingly busy engaged. It is still doubtful whether we shall be able to adjourn so early as the 30th Let this that day has been fixed. It appears almost impossible to get through the indispensable business by that time.

The administration is in a state of considerable confusion. Mr. Love has resigned. It is said Foster will succeed him. Fay will certainly be rejected.
It is thought that P. Benton will be nominated to fill his place. Stevenson's nomination will be acted on to day. I think he will be rejected.

It will not be in my power to take Edgefield in my way bound. I shall take the most direct route. My impatience to return is great.

I deeply regret to hear of the death of Mrs. Noble. Her death is an irreparable loss to her husband & family. I recollect the intelligence of it through our old friend George Borrie, who arrived here a few days since. He looks remarkably well, and intends to inform me to spend the summer in travel.

I hope Mrs. Pickens is better.
Make my kind respects to her & all friends, and believe me to be with sincere regard exp. return your find.

J. C. Gallows

Col. A. Pickens.
